Welcome

On behalf of the GEM Partners and the entire firm, we extend a warm welcome to you as part of the Y Combinator Access Fund (VC24A).

Your trust is immensely valued, and we are committed to cultivating a prosperous partnership.

We prioritize transparency as a core value of the firm, and we believe that an informed investor is an empowered partner. As such, we are committed to ensuring that you are equipped with comprehensive information and an understanding of how your capital is being allocated and managed for the years to come.

To that end, this document is an informational welcome packet designed for both our new and returning investors. As a valued member of our investor community, you should expect to receive regular portfolio updates, timely reporting, and the support of a dedicated Investment Services Team.

We are available at ir@geminvestments.com should you have any questions or concerns.
